

Name: _____

Date Started: _____ Date Completed: _____ Score: _____

Learning Activity Sheet

Major Mountain Belts

Directions: Choose the letter of the correct answer and write it in the blank provided before each number.

- _____ 1. How are mountains formed?
- A. collision of plates
 - B. through convection of slabs of rocks
 - C. through the action of magnetic poles
 - D. through the combination of two small mountains
- _____ 2. Which among the following countries is NOT located along the Pacific Ring of Fire?
- A. Japan
 - B. Philippines
 - C. Taiwan
 - D. Zimbabwe
- _____ 3. Where do mountain ranges usually form?
- A. stripped plate boundaries
 - B. diverging plate boundaries
 - C. subsiding plate boundaries
 - D. converging plate boundaries
- _____ 4. What is the longest mountain range in the Philippines?
- A. Talomo Mountain Range
 - B. Sierra Madre Mountain Range
 - C. Mount Pinatubo Mountain Range
 - D. Mount Makiling Mountain Range
- _____ 5. Which of the following does NOT belong to the group?
- A. Mount Apo
 - B. Mount Pulag
 - C. Sierra Nevada
 - D. Mount Pinatubo

- _____ 6. Which of the following statements is correct?
- A. All mountain ranges are part of the Circum-Pacific Belt.
 - B. All mountain ranges are part of the Alpine-Himalayan System.
 - C. Mountain ranges can form from the erosion of highly elevated areas.
 - D. All mountain ranges are part of the Circum-Pacific Belt or the Alpine-Himalayan System.
- _____ 7. What is the highest mountain above sea level and is part of the Himalayan Mountain Range?
- A. Mont Blanc
 - B. Mount Everest
 - C. Mount Kitanglad
 - D. Mount Makalu
- _____ 8. Which of the following statements is correct?
- A. Mountain belts are a series of mountains along the plate boundaries.
 - B. Mountain belts are a series of mountains randomly formed in a tectonic plate.
 - C. Mountain belts are a series of mountains formed when plates sank into the ocean floor.
 - D. Mountain belts are a series of mountains formed when plates moved away from each other.
- _____ 9. The colliding plates that formed the Alpine-Himalayan System are African, Indian, and _____ plates.
- A. Arabian
 - B. Eurasian
 - C. Hindo-Malayan
 - D. Filipino
- _____ 10. The Sierra Madre Mountain Range in the Philippines is the longest range in the country. Which statement about the Sierra Madre Mountain Range is NOT true?
- A. It is found along the Circum-Pacific Belt.
 - B. It spans from Occidental Mindoro to Laguna.
 - C. It serves as a protection from typhoons from the Pacific Ocean.
 - D. Many rivers flow along the mountain range, which include the Cagayan River.