

Name: _____

Date Started: _____ Date Completed: _____ Score: _____

Learning Activity Sheet

Sense Organs and How to Care for Them

A. Put a check mark if the sentence shows a good way of taking care of the sense organs. Otherwise, leave it blank.

- _____ 1. Clean your outer ear with a clean washcloth.
- _____ 2. Eating very hot or even very cold food. It harms your taste buds.
- _____ 3. Putting Any of your fingers or any pointed object inside your nose.
- _____ 4. Reading inside a moving vehicle is one way of showing care for the eyes.
- _____ 5. Eating food that are rich in vitamin A such as green leafy vegetables carrots, squash, and yellow fruits.

B. Identify the word/s being described in each sentence. Choose from the options inside the box.

A. Sty B. Acne C. Color blindness D. Ear boil E. Cracks
--

- _____ 1. This is an infection in the outer ear characterize by infection and swelling.
- _____ 2. It is a hereditary and usually involves the inability to distinguish between the colors red and green.
- _____ 3. These are splits or tears which can become inflamed and painful, resulting in ulcers of the tongue.
- _____ 4. This is an infection or inflammation of the glands that are connected to the eyelashes along the margin of the eyelid.
- _____ 5. This is the most common skin problem of adolescents. It usually begins at puberty when the oil glands enlarge and become more active.