

Name: _____

Date Started: _____ Date Completed: _____ Score: _____

Learning Activity Sheet Types of Conflicts

A. Fill out the cause–effect organizer with your insights. First, write three problems from the story in the first box. Then in the second column of boxes, analyze and write their types of conflict. Next, in the third box, write one cause and one effect for each problem. Lastly, write one solution for each problem you have presented.

Problems 1.  2.  3.	Type of Conflict  Type of Conflict  Type of Conflict	1. Cause -  Effect -  2. Cause -  Effect -  3. Cause -  Effect -
Solutions 1.  2.  3.

B. Further read the background of the author and the story Footnote to Youth using other sources such as print and non print media. Find out how culture, history, environment, and other actors influenced the writing of the selection. Use the questions below as your guide. You may use your notebook in jotting down information that you have gathered. Do not forget to cite your sources.

1. What does the title tell you about the story?

---

---

2. Who is the author? What have you researched about him or her?

---

---

3. What year was the story written? What was happening in our country around this time?

---

---

4. Was the Philippines better during this time? Why or why not?

---

---

5. Can we say that the problems present in the story are problems that still happen today?

---

---