I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud

By William Wordsworth

- | | |
|---|---|
| I. I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze. | III. The waves beside them danced; but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee:
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed-- and gazed-- but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought: |
| II. Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay;
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance. | IV. For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils. |

Boracay

WHERE TO STAY IN BORACAY

White beach: most resorts, hotels and other forms of accommodation are congregated around white beach, which is divided into boat stations 1 (the most upmarket and relaxing), 2 (the most lively) and 3 (popular with budget travelers). The stations' names hark back to the existence of boat stations at which visitors arrived from the mainland.

Diniwid beach: other places to stay are Diniwid beach just north of white beach—a quieter option with calm, shallow waters flanked by cliffs and hence ideal for those travelling with children. It also has viewing platforms down over the beach, lined by restaurants. Meanwhile, many couples opt for off-the-beaten-track puka shell beach (Yapak beach) at the island's northern tip—quieter and with deeper water ideal for swimming, snorkelling and paddle-boarding (paddle-boarding is best at the white beachfront area).

Bulabog: the island's water sports capital, popular with kiteboarders and wind-surfers, Bulabog is the most popular area for budget travellers while being just a 10-min stroll from all the attractions of white beach. Lastly, there's the undeveloped Tambisaan beach with its coral reefs, offering homely and authentic places to stay along with lots of great street food.
