

Name: _____

Date Started: _____ Date Completed: _____ Score: _____

Learning Activity Sheet

Projective Listening and Paraphrasing

I. Read the following sentences. In the spaces below, write the paraphrase version of each of the sentences.

1. Technological advancements did not just help make our lives convenient but also make education more accessible than before.

2. Tone is the way an author expresses his/her attitudes through his/her writing to evoke any number of emotions and perspectives.

3. Literature always provides an excellent platform where authors can present some of the happenings in society in an artistic manner through fiction.

4. To earn a grade and credit for the course, students must complete the assignments and goals set forth by the course's teacher within a certain time frame.

5. According to a film reviewer, Korean dramas are characterized as having excellent production quality, well-drawn but stereotypical characters, and intelligent scriptwriting.

6. Around 9 million hectares, or 30 % of Philippine's total land area of 30 million hectares, are believed to contain important metallic mineral deposits; while 5 million hectares are also known to be potential sites for nonmetallic mineral reserves.

II. Briefly explain what are projective listening and paraphrasing.
