

Name: _____

Date Started: _____ Date Completed: _____ Score: _____

Learning Activity Sheet
Delivering An Entertainment Speech

I. Read and analyze each question carefully. Circle the best answer.

1. The following features are necessary in delivering an entertainment speech except:
  - A. pitch and intonation
  - B. speed and accuracy
  - C. stress
  - D. volume
2. The following features are necessary in delivering an entertainment speech except:
  - A. critical analysis
  - B. eye contact and posture
  - C. body language and delivery
  - D. consistency of the theme/content
3. Why should the speaker be very mindful of his/her movement in delivering his/her speech?
  - A. Gestures capture the audience's attention.
  - B. Gestures allow the speaker to establish authority.
  - C. Gestures make the performance more interesting.
  - D. Gestures serve as an aid in communicating the message of the piece.
4. Why is it important for the speaker to consider articulation when delivering the speech? It allows the listener to:
  - A. reflect on the speaker's intention
  - B. gather strategies in voice modulation
  - C. clearly understand the message of the piece
  - D. establish a relationship between the piece and one's understanding
5. Considering the rudiments of public speaking, what makes the use of proper grammatical signals essential?
  - A. In an oral presentation, body movements serve as an aid for the uttered words.
  - B. In an oral presentation, words signal the principle in inflections and articulations.
  - C. In an oral presentation, grammatical signals assure humor to capture the audience's attention.
  - D. In an oral presentation, voice modulation is important, which is reflected through word arrangement.

II. Write ✓ if the statement is TRUE and ✗ if it is FALSE.

- _____ 1. Keep both feet on the floor. Do not slouch or sway.
- _____ 2. Speak clearly. Articulate your words so that you do not mumble.
- _____ 3. As much as possible, do not pause and look only at your audience.
- _____ 4. Avoid using visual aids or equipment while speaking so viewers can focus on the performance.
- _____ 5. Make sure everything you say is clear and understandable. Speak loudly enough so everyone can hear you.