

Name: _____

Date Started: _____ Date Completed: _____ Score: _____

Learning Activity Sheet

Point of View in Images Used in Texts

A. Analyze the given images. Read and answer the questions that follow. Write the letter of the correct answer on the blank provided.

_____ 1. What kind of stereotype is challenged in the image on the left?

- A. age
- B. gender
- C. race
- D. Religion

_____ 2. What is the point of view of the poster?

- A. Men are good parents.
- B. Men can take care of their babies, too.
- C. Men can do better than women.
- D. Men can learn from women when taking care of babies.

_____ 3. What kind of stereotype is presented in the image on the left?

- A. age
- B. gender
- C. race
- D. Religion

_____ 4. What is the implied point of view of the poster?

- A. Muslim people are scary people.
- B. Muslim people have a better clothing style.
- C. We should not be afraid of Muslims.
- D. We should appreciate the culture of Muslim people.

_____ 5. Which of the following is a generalization presented by the image on the left?

- A. All families want to dress alike.
- B. There are always two children in a family.
- C. All families follow a similar structural composition.
- D. Clothing companies see families as brand models.

B. Analyze the following images and complete the table. The first one is done for you as your guide.

	Stereotype	My point of view
Example: 	Cheerleaders should always be pretty, slim, and great dancers.	I think all can be cheerleaders as long as we have the talent and passion for cheerleading.
