

Name: _____

Date Started: _____ Date Completed: _____ Score: _____

Learning Activity Sheet

Conveying Meaning through Creative Writing

A. Read the following questions carefully. Then, circle the letter of the correct answer.

1. It is used to entertain and give aesthetic pleasure.
  - A. informative writing
  - B. literary writing
  - C. journalistic writing
  - D. persuasive writing
2. Which among the interjections below shows very strong affirmation or approval?
  - A. boo
  - B. ooh-la-la
  - C. oopss
  - D. yeah
3. Which of the following is most often written in a format called the inverted pyramid, which arranges the information in descending order of importance or newsworthiness?
  - A. informative writing
  - B. literary writing
  - C. journalistic writing
  - D. persuasive writing
4. Which of the following best describes interjections?
  - A. These are words or phrases that cannot stand alone.
  - B. These are words can be placed only before a sentence.
  - C. These are words that are highly connected to intense emotions are interjections.
  - D. Many times, these words are followed by a punctuation mark, often a question mark.
5. Which among the interjections below is an exclamation people use when they accidentally do something?
  - A. boo

B. ooh-la-la

C. oops

D. yeah

B. Use either commas, colons, or semicolons within the sentences below to achieve each sentence's intended meaning.

1. I'm not saying that you shouldn't love the man I just want you to be careful.
2. Tony Jane and Sandra all went home defeated that evening.
3. Music changed his life with it he feels alive.

C. Apply the rules of capitalization on the sentences below. Rewrite the sentences correctly on the space provided.

1. trust in our lord god; he will never betray you.

---

2. jane, tricia, and elizabeth were the last to join the group; they joined last october.

---

3. what mr dela cruz wanted was a copy of Michael Buble song, "I haven't met you yet."

---