Using Correct Aspects of Verbs to Compose Clear Sentences

A. Write the correct present perfect aspect of the verb in the parenthesis. Place the added word (just, now, recently between have/has + past participle).

- _____ 1. Manila (now - grow) into a large city.
 _____ 2. Hebron and Lucy (recently - pass) the bar exam.

B. Write the simple past or the past perfect aspect of the verb in the parenthesis. Consider the sequence of the actions and the use of the conjunctions: before, after, when.

- _____ 1. The package (arrive) a few minutes after we (leave) the house.
 _____ 2. When I (ask) what my brother (do) with the money, he refused to answer.

C. Write the correct future perfect aspect of the verb in the parenthesis.

- _____ 1. Please hurry or the train (leave) before you come.
 _____ 2. Before another century (pass), man will reach the other planets.

D. Write the correct present perfect or present perfect progressive aspect of the verb in the parenthesis. Time words are your clues.

- _____ 1. Since the pandemic, I and my classmates (miss) each other's company.
 _____ 2. I cannot forget how we (laugh) so loudly for quite long hours.

E. Complete the paragraph by writing the correct past perfect progressive aspect of the verb inside the parenthesis.

It was her first day working in a big company. She 1. (think) _____ of it since last night. Earlier, she saw how her mother 2. (prepare) _____ food for her. She could not help but remember how her mom 3. (do) _____ the same thing during her first day in school. Then, she noticed a mail on top of the fridge. Her mom said the letter 4. (lie) _____ there for several days and 5. (give) _____ her some weird feeling. "Wouldn't you open it?" asked her mom.
